MADISON – Assembly Majority Leader Jim Steinke’s (R-Kaukauna) office today announced that Tyler Clark has been named as the office’s new Policy Advisor. In this new role, Clark will assist in researching policy items for the Majority Leader’s Office and the State Assembly as a whole.

Clark previously worked in the Assembly for Representative Mike Rohrkaste (R-Neenah), a member of the Joint Committee on Finance. His experience in the Fox Valley and in the budget process will serve Clark well in understanding the individual nuances and goals of the 5th Assembly District.

“Tyler has proven himself to be an asset, not only to specific offices, but to our caucus as a whole,” said Rep. Steineke. “I look forward to utilizing his skillset to ensure we’re taking the right legislative steps forward for the 5th Assembly District and for Wisconsin as a whole.”
