“Wisconsin Republicans are playing dangerous political games that leave the safety of our children in jeopardy.”

MADISON – State Representative Lisa Subeck (D – Madison) issued the following statement regarding today’s floor session:

“Students and parents throughout the state are looking to us to keep their schools and their communities safe. Instead of moving forward with a plan to keep guns out of the hands of dangerous people through universal background checks for all firearm purchases, Republicans are playing political games that place the safety of our children in jeopardy.”
