The Story Governor Walker Won't Tell

MADISON – Today, Governor Walker will give his annual State of the State address. In anticipation, Rep. Chris Taylor (D-Madison), issued the following statement and video summary about the true state of the state:

“What the people of Wisconsin won’t hear from Governor Walker today is that his politics have seriously hurt the people of our state, our children, our education system, our transportation and transit systems, and our main street local businesses. People are flocking from Wisconsin at a record pace, and it’s because Governor Walker hasn’t made the necessary public investments so that individuals and families have the opportunity to thrive. It doesn’t have to be this way, but unfortunately Governor Walker has put his own political agenda ahead of the people of this state. That’s what we will continue to see from the Governor today.”
