Milwaukee—Rep. JoCasta Zamarripa released the following statement on her reelection to represent the 8th Assembly District:

“My heart is full today. I’m returning to the Assembly thanks to the hard work of my supporters. I’m grateful to my constituents, who turned out in record number to vote their conscience. I’ve never been more proud to represent the near south side of Milwaukee, and I look forward to returning to work to fight for a better Wisconsin.
