RAGA Launches Digital Advertising Campaign

The Republican Attorneys General Association (RAGA) launched a digital advertising campaign in Wisconsin to support Attorney General Brad Schimel's re-election efforts. The digital ads highlight Attorney General Schimel's work on analyzing untested sexual assault kits and his efforts to make Wisconsin schools safer. Both are key issues and reflect his dedication to achieving real solutions to the many complex challenges his office faces.

Brown County Sheriff John Gossage and Eau Claire County Sheriff Ron Cramer appear in the videos.

"Brad Schimel is law enforcement's choice for attorney general and we are going to continue to share why with Wisconsin voters," said RAGA Executive Director Scott Will. "As a nearly 30-year prosecutor, Attorney General Schimel is a proven leader with a record of results keeping Wisconsin communities strong and safe."
