WASHINGTON, D.C. – As Wisconsin Attorney General Brad Schimel prepares to deliver remarks to the 2018 Republican Party of Wisconsin State Convention, Arkansas Attorney General Leslie Rutledge – and chair of the Republican Attorneys General Association – issued the following statement:

“Brad Schimel is a good man, deeply committed to his family – his faith – his community. People like Brad, they trust him. I do, too. You need experience to be a successful attorney general and law enforcement needs to trust you. Your attorney general, Brad Schimel, has both. Brad has been a prosecutor for nearly 30 years and tried over 10,000 cases. He respects the law, stands up for law enforcement and works with them to keep Wisconsin communities safe. I’m proud to stand with Brad Schimel, and I know he is proud to fight for you.”
