

Restoration PAC announces $1 million TV buy backing Nicholson

Posted on Thursday, Apr 19, 2018

The conservative Restoration PAC today announced a $1 million TV buy promoting GOP U.S. Senate candidate Kevin Nicholson, saying reality turned the business consultant into a conservative, “just like with Ronald Reagan.”

Nicholson is the former president of the national College Democrats and has faced questions about his conservative credentials. It’s the second TV the group has done comparing Nicholson to Reagan.

The narrator mentions the former Marine’s more than 100 combat missions in Iraq and the birth of his children while saying, “It all shaped his conversion.” Now, Nicholson is “passionate about spreading his conservative agenda to help Wisconsin families like his,” the narrator says.

The narrator adds Nicholson believes in the Second Amendment, the right to life and “like President Trump, wants to build a wall to secure our border.”

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

“Kevin Nicholson is the right choice for U.S. Senate,” the narrator says to close the spot.

The group, which is backed financially by Illinois businessman Richard Uihlein, said the ad will run statewide on broadcast and cable TV through early June.