Madison, WI - Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Kelda Roys has earned the exclusive endorsement of Feminist Majority PAC, a national political organization dedicated to electing progressive, feminist women and ending the under-representation of women and people of color in political office.

"I'm grateful to Feminist Majority PAC for their support," said Roys. "Working together, we can help ensure that women and people of color achieve fairer representation. As governor, I will restore opportunity and fairness to Wisconsin, and make sure no one is left behind."

Roys has previously been endorsed by many national and state organizations and leaders, including EMILY's List, Sen. Kirsten Gillibrand, NARAL Pro-Choice America, Women's March WI, National Organization for Women - Wisconsin, Demand Universal Healthcare, Moms Demand Action Candidate Distinction, #VoteProChoice, Andy Gronik, Outagamie Co. Exec. Thomas Nelson, Rep. Lisa Subeck, Rep. JoCasta Zamarripa, Rep. Amanda Stuck, Rep. Nick Milroy, former Sen. Jess King, and hundreds of local elected officials and leaders.
