Roys' campaign continues gaining momentum

Madison, WI - Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate Kelda Roys recently received the endorsement of two influential women's and civil rights organizations, NARAL Pro-Choice America and the Wisconsin chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW).

"Kelda Roys has been a steadfast champion for Wisconsin women and families. We are so proud to endorse her for Governor," said Ilyse Hogue, president of NARAL Pro-Choice America. "Kelda Roys will continue to be a strong voice for women and families across Wisconsin."

"Kelda Roys is a leader on issues of equality and women's healthcare," said NOW Wisconsin president Lindsay Lemmer. "Wisconsin NOW is incredibly fired up to endorse Kelda Roys. We are excited to support a true intersectional feminist to be Wisconsin's next governor."

"I'm thrilled to earn the exclusive endorsements of NARAL Pro-Choice America and NOW - Wisconsin," said Roys. "It's time to expand access to healthcare and stop the attacks on women's health and reproductive rights. NARAL and NOW -

Wisconsin have endorsed me not just because of my unparalleled track record of standing up for women, but because I am the strongest candidate to beat Scott Walker in November.”
