Janesville, WI — House Speaker Paul Ryan issued the following statement after Mitt Romney was declared the winner in the election to represent Utah in the United State Senate:

"Mitt Romney's win tonight is exciting for the people of Utah and for the entire nation. Mitt is the consummate public servant, and we need leaders like him who put country before self and believe in the things that make America special. He will be a powerful voice for the causes that he cares about and put everything he has into making Utah proud."

In addition to serving as House Speaker, Paul Ryan represents Wisconsin's First Congressional District. For more information, please visit www.speakerryan.com.
