Save Our Fiscal Watchdog - Vote No Committee Releases Television Ad

Appleton — On Tuesday, March 27, the Save Our Fiscal Watchdog - Vote No Committee released their television advertisement that will be aired in the Milwaukee, Madison, and La Crosse/Eau Claire media markets through the end of election day on April 3rd.

Jack Voight, the Treasurer of the committee had this to say about the ad, “The ad highlights how risky it is to eliminate Wisconsin’s chief fiscal watchdog, the State Treasurer. The Treasurer provides fiscal oversight that can mitigate fraud or corruption in our state government. Eliminating this office would lead to unintended consequences that would not be good for our state. This Constitutional office is priceless to the benefit of the taxpayers across Wisconsin.”

As a Wisconsin Impact Investor, Sarah Godlewski continued, ““A company would never fire it’s CFO and give all the power to the CEO. It’s business malpractice that can lead to fraud and corruption.”

The Committee to Save Our Fiscal Watchdog — Vote No is a grassroots citizen committee who is committed to educate Wisconsinites on the importance of the office of State Treasurer.
