(Reedsburg, Wis.) – The Screnock for Justice Campaign announced Friday that Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice Annette K. Ziegler is endorsing Judge Michael Screnock over Milwaukee Judge Rebecca Dallet in the April 3rd Supreme Court election.

“I am endorsing Judge Michael Screnock because he appreciates and values the importance of the rule of law and will not legislate from the bench,” said Judge Ziegler. “Equal justice is best rendered when a jurist acts with judicial restraint.”

“I am honored and humbled to earn the endorsement of another sitting Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice,” said Judge Screnock. “No one knows better than our current justices what it takes to serve on our highest court, and it is a responsibility I take seriously.”

“Judge Screnock has thoughtfully pledged to be true to the Constitutionally defined role of a Wisconsin Supreme Court Justice,” said Ziegler.

In addition to Justice Ziegler, current Wisconsin Supreme Court Justices Rebecca Bradley, Michael Gableman and Daniel Kelly have also endorsed Judge Screnock. Former justices to endorse Judge Screnock include David Prosser and Jon Wilcox.
