(Reedsburg, Wis.) – The Srenock for Justice Campaign announced Tuesday Judge Michael Srenock has been endorsed by the Wisconsin Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) in the April 3rd Supreme Court election.

In endorsing Judge Srenock, the FOP cited the Sauk County Circuit Court judge's experience, judicial philosophy, and aversion to legislating from the bench. According to the FOP, Judge Srenock is law enforcement's choice for Wisconsin's High Court.

"I am honored to have the support of the Wisconsin chapter of our nation's largest police organization," said Judge Srenock. "The endorsement of the Wisconsin FOP, coupled with the support for our campaign by a bipartisan majority of Wisconsin Sheriffs, is further proof that I am law enforcement's choice in this critical election."

The Fraternal Order of Police is the largest police organization in existence, with more than 330,000 members worldwide, who are active and retired law enforcement officers at the Federal, State and Local levels.
