(Reedsburg, Wis.) – The Screnock for Justice Campaign released a new statewide TV ad Wednesday, titled 'Tuba'. The ad, which will air on broadcast and cable across Wisconsin, highlights Judge Screnock's judicial philosophy and Wisconsin roots—including his time as a tuba player in the University of Wisconsin marching band.

"From day one, our campaign has been about my judicial philosophy, my experience, and my love for public service and the state of Wisconsin," said Judge Screnock.

Judge Screnock, who currently serves as a Sauk County Circuit Court Judge, has also worked as a private attorney and a local government official. He graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and has three adult children with his wife, Karen.

"I was born here, I was raised here, I went to school here, and my wife and I raised our family here," said Screnock. "It would be a tremendous honor to serve the people of our great state on the Supreme Court."
