Senator Darling Lauds Appointment of Anna Wildeman

Madison – Recently, Anna Wildeman was appointed as the Director of the Department of Justice’s Environmental Protection Unit. She first started at DOJ in 2016 and has extensive experience as an environmental attorney in Wisconsin and Washington, D.C. Despite her excellent resume, Anna is facing partisan attacks.

On Friday, State Senator Alberta Darling (R-River Hills) issued the following statement in support of the appointment of Anna Wildeman.

“I applaud Attorney General Brad Schimel for appointing Anna Wildeman to lead the Environmental Protection Unit. It’s fantastic to see a woman of Anna’s ability and character be selected for such an important position. The people of Wisconsin are getting a highly-skilled and experienced attorney to represent them.

I’m disappointed to see the unfair partisan attacks on her. Anna Wildeman will do an outstanding job leading the Environmental Protection Unit. I am confident Wisconsin will be well represented by Anna.”

Senator Darling represents portions of Milwaukee, Ozaukee, Washington and Waukesha Counties.
