Madison – State Senator Dan Feyen (R- Fond du Lac) was elected today by his Senate Republican colleagues to serve as Assistant Majority Leader of the State Senate for the 2019-20 session.

“I am grateful for the support of my fellow Senators, I will use my leadership experience to work with the Majority Leader and Senators to assist our caucus in running smoothly. The State Senate is a great institution with rich traditions and I hope that as Assistant Majority Leader I can build upon our past accomplishments and make the State Senate operate in an efficient and effective manner.”

Elected to Senate in 2016, Senator Dan Feyen represents the 18th Senate District, which includes parts of Winnebago, Fond du Lac, and Dodge counties. He serves as Chairman of the Senate Economic Development, Commerce and Local Government committee, Vice Chairman of the Senate Workforce Development, Military Affairs and Senior Issues committee, Co-Chair of the Joint Survey Committee on Tax Exemptions, Member of the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation Board and member of the Financial Services, Constitution and Federalism and Universities and Technical Colleges committees.
