(Green Bay)—Democratic challenger Tom Sieber earned more support this week as the Tavern League of Wisconsin voted unanimously to endorse his candidacy.

“We wish you continued success,” said Chris Marsicano, President of the Tavern League. “We hope to work with you to ensure your victory on Election Day!”

The Tavern League joins the long list of supporters which include International Union of Operating Engineers Local 139, International Union of Operating Engineers Local 420, United Food and Commercial Workers, Clean Water Action, Green Bay Area Professional Fire Fighters I.A.F.F. Local 141, Professional Fire Fighters of Wisconsin, UA 400 Plumbers & Steamfitters, LiUNA, Wisconsin League of Conversation Voters, Iron Workers Local 8, AFL-CIO, AFSCME Council 32, WEAC, WEAC Region 3, Green Bay Education Association, NE WI Building Trades, IUPAT District Council 7, United Steelworkers, IBEW Local 158, IBEW 494, Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Sierra Club, National Association of Social Workers, and many more.

“I’m proud and honored to be endorsed by this group that represents hard working small business owners throughout the state,” stated Sieber. “As a small business owner myself, I understand the struggles they face everyday. I am grateful for the endorsement and look forward to being a champion for the working class in Madison.”

Tom Sieber is running for State Assembly District #88 which is in Brown County and includes the far-east side of Green Bay, Bellevue, East De Pere, Ledgeview and Glenmore. He is a four term Brown County Board Supervisor, lifelong Brown County resident, small business owner and married father of three.
