

Speaker Ryan to Address National Hispanic Prayer Breakfast

Posted on Wednesday, May 30, 2018

Where: Grand Hyatt, Washington, D.C.

When: Thursday, June 14, 8:50 a.m.

WASHINGTON—On Thursday, June 14, House Speaker Paul Ryan (R-WI) will address Esperanza's 2018 National Hispanic Prayer Breakfast and Conference in Washington, D.C. Media guidance and livestream information is below.

DETAILS:

Speaker Ryan to Address National Hispanic Prayer Breakfast
Thursday, June 14 at approx. 8:50 a.m. ET
Grand Hyatt Washington

WATCH LIVE: Watch Speaker Ryan's remarks on speaker.gov/live.

MEDIA: All media must RSVP to attend. To do so, please contact Joshua Garner at joshua@hivemindfirm.com.

BACKGROUND: For 16 years, the National Hispanic Prayer Breakfast has brought together thousands of national and international faith advocates—including clergy leaders, churches, nonprofits, academics, policy-makers, and others—to raise their voices on pressing issues affecting families, neighbors, and communities. To learn more, visit nhpb.esperanza.us.