Also welcomes special guest Gov. Matt Bevin as keynote speaker

[Madison, WI] — The Republican Party of Wisconsin is announcing Lt. Governor Rebecca Kleefisch as the chair of our 2018 State Convention. This year's convention theme is: "Delivering Results, Moving Wisconsin Forward." Additionally, Republicans are excited to welcome Kentucky Governor Matt Bevin as a special guest and the keynote speaker for the Saturday evening banquet.

"Wisconsin Republicans know the importance of our conservative grassroots volunteers. I'm incredibly honored to once again serve as their chair at the Republican Party of Wisconsin State Convention." said Lt. Governor Kleefisch. "We know that all of our reforms are on the line in this election. The convention is the perfect time for Wisconsin conservatives to get organized ahead of November – and together we will keep delivering results and moving Wisconsin forward."

Today's announcement comes in addition to Wisconsin Republicans previously naming U.S. Senator Ron Johnson as Chairman of the Grassroots Endorsement process at the 2018 State Convention. The Republican Party of Wisconsin State Convention will take place May 11-13 in downtown Milwaukee. Media will be advised of more event details in the coming weeks.
