Dear President Cross,
Thank you for your swift and decisive actions in response to UW-La Crosse Chancellor Gow's recent error in judgement. Your letter of reprimand to Dr. Gow left no uncertainty that you have a high level of respect for spending taxpayer and student tuition dollars in a responsible and transparent manner.

Furthermore, your call for an audit of the Chancellor's Discretionary Funding covering the past four years inspires confidence in your strong leadership and fiscal responsibility.

Wisconsin is fortunate to have you at the helm of its greatest economic engine. I look forward to working together to advance UW System in the next legislative session.

Sincerely,

Dave Murphy
