Mason, Wisconsin – Today, Wisconsin State Senator Janet Bewley, who is running for re-election in Wisconsin State Senate District 25, received the endorsement of the Wisconsin Troopers Association. Such an endorsement is awarded to a select and bipartisan group of State Senators in the state who demonstrate support for the men and women of law enforcement and who consistently act to improve public and highway safety.

“I’m honored to have received the endorsement of the Wisconsin State Troopers Association,” said Bewley, “and I want to thank the brave men and women of the Wisconsin State Patrol and of all law enforcement agencies who work so hard to keep our communities safe.”

Senator Bewley represents the 25th Senate District, having first been elected in 2014, after previously serving two terms in the State Assembly. The 25th Senate District includes, in full or in part, 12 counties: Douglas, Bayfield, Ashland, Iron, Price, Washburn, Barron, Sawyer, Vilas, Dunn, St. Croix, and Polk.
