JANESVILLE, Wis. – First Congressional District candidate Bryan Steil released his third TV ad of the general election on Wednesday. The ad touts Steil's roots in Southeast Wisconsin and Bryan's focus on creating high wage jobs.

"My campaign is about fighting for our communities in Southeast Wisconsin," said Bryan Steil. "In Congress, I will stand up for American workers and always put Wisconsin families first."

You can watch the ad, titled "Home," here. The ad's transcript is below:

Bryan Steil: I'm Bryan Steil. I was born and raised in Southeast Wisconsin. It's my home. I approve this message because from agriculture to high tech manufacturing, we work every day to move Wisconsin forward. We all want our communities to thrive so the next generation has the opportunity for good paying jobs... Like it used to be. I'm Bryan Steil and you can count on me to always put you and your family first.

Steil's third ad will appear on television, digital and social media platforms.

Bryan Steil won the Republican nomination for the First Congressional District on August 14 with over 51 percent of the vote in a five-way contest. Steil is running for Congress to fight for American workers and prepare our workforce for the jobs of the future. Steil is a member of the University of Wisconsin Board of Regents and has a strong background as a business leader. For the past nine years, Steil has worked for manufacturing companies in Rock County and has learned the importance of fiscal discipline and risks of government red tape. Steil was born and raised in Janesville, Wisconsin, where he currently lives.
