BURLINGTON, Wis. - First Congressional District candidate Bryan Steil won election to the U.S. House of Representatives Tuesday. Steil, a first time candidate who has worked for the last decade for Rock County manufacturers, declared the election a win for Wisconsin workers.

Bryan Steil: “Tonight is a victory for taking a step forward in Southeast Wisconsin. When I first announced my candidacy, I told voters that their agenda would be my agenda. My focus is to help everyone in Southeast Wisconsin obtain good-paying jobs, earn higher wages, and have a better quality of life. I promise to take my problem solving skills and my Wisconsin-style work ethic to Congress to work tirelessly on your behalf.”
