Steil campaign: Veterans back Steil for Congress

Steil Campaign Announces Veterans for Steil Coalition

JANESVILLE, Wis. - First Congressional District candidate Bryan Steil announced today the endorsements of veterans from across Southeast Wisconsin and the formation of the "Veterans for Steil Coalition." Fifty men and women from all branches of our nation's military are supporting Bryan Steil for Congress.

Bryan Steil: "I am honored to have the support of veterans from across the First Congressional District. Our veterans' bravery and sacrifice to our nation is unmatched and they deserve the best care and resources our nation can provide. In Congress, I will ensure that after leaving service, our veterans are prepared to transition to jobs in our nations workforce."

Wisconsin Air National Guard Veteran and State Sen. Steve Nass: "I am proud to back Bryan Steil for Congress because Bryan listens to veterans. With Bryan's background in manufacturing and education, Bryan has the experience to help veterans get high paying jobs when they return home to Southeast Wisconsin."

Prior to announcing the coalition, Steil held roundtable meetings listening to the concerns of veterans of the First Congressional District.

Bryan Steil won the Republican nomination for the First Congressional District on August 14 with over 51 percent of the vote in a five-way contest. Steil is running for Congress to fight for American workers and prepare our workforce for the jobs of the future. Steil is a member of the University of Wisconsin Board of Regents and has a strong background as a business leader. For the past nine years, Steil has worked for manufacturing companies in Rock County and has learned the importance of fiscal discipline and risks of government red tape. Steil was born and raised in Janesville, Wisconsin, where he currently lives.

Use of military rank, job titles, and photographs in uniform do not imply endorsement by any branch of the U.S. military or the Department of Defense. All members listed are retired from military service.
