FOX POINT – Liz Sumner, candidate for Wisconsin's 23rd Assembly District, today issued the following statement.

"I am honored to receive the endorsement from an impactful organization such as EMILY's List. They have worked tirelessly to elect women who want to improve how government functions. I know that people in the 23rd assembly district are ready for new leadership and I'm glad to have EMILY's List support in this election," noted Liz Sumner following the endorsement. "I will work diligently to meet and exceed their expectations of me and look forward to working with them once elected."

"As a longtime resident of Wisconsin and small business owner, Liz Sumner is aware of the needs of Milwaukee and Ozaukee residents and knows what it takes to promote economic development in her city. Liz has already contributed her skills to the Fox Point Village Board and we are confident that she will use her expertise to serve her district well in the state Assembly," said Geri Prado, senior director of state and local campaigns at EMILY's List. "EMILY's List is excited to support Liz in her campaign for state Assembly."

Liz Sumner is a resident of Fox Point, a small business owner, a current member of the Fox Point Village Board, mother of two young children, and is running to represent the 23rd Assembly District in the Democratic primary election on August 14, 2018 and in the general election on November 6, 2018.
