Milton, Wisconsin- Today, Gabriel Szerlong filed his nomination papers for placement on the ballot in his bid of candidacy for the 43rd Assembly District of the State Legislature. Szerlong made this comment regarding the submission of his papers:

“I am very excited to be placed the ballot for this November’s election in a race to become your State Representative for the 43rd district. I am very much looking forward to the rigors of the campaign trail, and to engaging with many new faces along the way. I hope I can speak for many when I say a Stronger Wisconsin is something I strive for daily. With that will come Stronger Families and Stronger Schools. Strength in our foundations is vital to the continued growth of our State. Join me as we fight for what is most important to us, and work together to increase liberties and economic successes for our district and our state.”

The 43rd Assembly District contains portions of Rock, Walworth, Dane and Jefferson counties including Whitewater, Milton, Edgerton, Footville, part of Oregon and surrounding towns.
