New York, NY – Today, Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. announced President Trump's next stop on his national midterm campaign tour with a MAGA Rally on Wednesday, October 24 at 6:30 pm CDT at Central Wisconsin Airport in Mosinee, Wisconsin. This is the seventeenth rally that President Trump has held in Wisconsin and the second rally in the Mosinee/Wausau area since he first began his race for president in June, 2015.

President Trump is expected to discuss the success of the booming economy that's delivering new jobs and bigger paychecks to families across Wisconsin, as well as the critical need for voters to help protect and expand the GOP majorities in the House and Senate this November.

"We are pleased to announce the next stop on our national midterm campaign tour with a Make America Great Again rally on Wednesday, October 24th in Mosinee, Wisconsin, featuring President Donald Trump," said Michael Glassner Chief Operating Officer to Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. "President Trump looks forward to being with the great patriots of Wisconsin to celebrating the booming economy that's delivering more jobs and bigger paychecks across the state. The President will also remind Wisconsinites of the critical need to get out and vote on November 6th to help protect and expand the Republican majorities in the House and Senate, including supporting Leah Vukmir in her race against Tammy Baldwin for the U.S. Senate," he concluded.
