

UW-Milwaukee: 12th Annual Henry W. Maier State of Milwaukee Summit addresses immigration

Posted on Monday, Nov 12, 2018

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Contact: Jamie Harris
(414) 229-4751
jmh@uwm.edu

Milwaukee- UWM's Urban Studies program has partnered with Voces de la Frontera, the ACLU of Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Muslim Women's Coalition and the Refugee Resettlement Program of Lutheran Social Services of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan for "Immigration and the City in the Trump Era: Immigrant Rights, Advocacy, and Communities in Milwaukee."

This 2018 Milwaukee Summit will be held on Thursday, Nov. 15, at 5:30 p.m. in the UWM Student Union Fireside Lounge. Panelists will discuss different facets of immigration policy, immigrant rights movements and refugee resettlement experiences in Milwaukee, along with advocacy efforts and examples of success.

The panelists are:

- Rachel Buff, UWM Department of History & Cultures and Communities Program
- Mary Flynn, program manager of refugee resettlement for Lutheran Social Services of Wisconsin and Upper Michigan
- Janan Najeeb, president, Milwaukee Muslim Women's Coalition
- Christine Neumann-Ortiz, executive director, Voces de la Frontera
- Karyn Rotker, senior staff attorney, ACLU of Wisconsin

Sponsors include The Henry W. Maier Fund and various UWM entities: Urban Studies

Programs, Cultures and Communities Program, Institute of World Affairs, Center for International Education, Buildings-Landscapes-Cultures, the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, the Center for Economic Development and the College of Letters and Science.