Who: Voces de la Frontera, Youth Empowered in the Struggle, immigrant youth and families, community supporters

What: Rally to urge Paul Ryan to pass the clean Dream Act as part of the spending bill

When: Wednesday, February 7th, 3:30pm

Where: Corner of S 6th St & Main St, Racine, WI 53403

RACINE, WISCONSIN - With the federal government expected to shut down Thursday night unless Congress passes spending legislation, constituents of US Speaker of the House Paul Ryan will rally at his Racine office Wednesday to urge him to allow a vote on a spending bill that includes Dream Act protections for immigrant youth. Since the President ended DACA protections in September 2017, over 19,000 immigrant youth have lost protections and become vulnerable to deportations. The group will rally at 3:30pm on the corner of S 6th St & Main St and then march to Speaker Ryan's office at 216 S 6th St.

"I'm fighting for a clean dream act because I'm fighting with and for my friends," said Lizbeth Enciso, a student and member of Youth Empowered in the Struggle at Horlick High School in Racine. "Any funding bill that doesn't include the Dream Act funds the deportation of immigrant youth, and is unacceptable.”
