Brookfield, Wis. — This weekend, two-faced Tammy Baldwin is heading to the Hamptons to campaign with Senator Gillibrand who has said that if Democrats regain control of Congress, the first item of business is to abolish the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

“There is nothing more two-faced about Tammy Baldwin than telling Wisconsin she supports ICE and then campaigning with the individual spearheading the effort to abolish ICE,” said Leah Vukmir campaign manager Jess Ward. “While two-faced Tammy brunches in the Hamptons with the abolish ICE crowd, Leah Vukmir believes we need to secure our borders and fully fund ICE.”

BACKGROUND...

Two-faced Tammy Baldwin will be in the Hamptons attending a cocktail party and a fancy brunch with Senator Gillibrand. “Lisa Rosenblum will host an East Hampton brunch Aug. 19 for Wisconsin Sen. Tammy Baldwin and New York Sen. Kirsten Gillibrand. (There will also be an area cocktail event with Baldwin the night before.)” (The New York Post, 07/28/18)

Two-faced Tammy Baldwin’s ally Senator Gillibrand said if Democrats regain control of Congress, they should get rid of ICE. “So when we flip the House and flip the Senate, I think the first thing we should do is deal with the children who have been separated from their families at the border. I think we should get rid of ICE,” Sen.

Gillibrand said at New York City's OZY Fest 2018." (Town Hall, 07/23/18)
