Pewaukee, Wis. — Rep. Glenn Grothman, who represents Wisconsin's 6th Congressional District, endorsed Leah Vukmir for U.S. Senate Friday at a campaign rally.

"Every step of the way, Leah has taken the hard route, not afraid to make the fundamental changes we need in this state," Grothman said. "Behind the scenes, she's not afraid to fight, and I know when the doors are closed, Leah Vukmir is not going to be a doormat. To beat Sen. Baldwin this fall, it is so important that we fire up, and all get prepared to do all we can to support the woman I'm endorsing for U.S. Senate — Leah Vukmir."

"I'm thankful to have Glenn on my team," Leah said. "He has been a leader fighting to balance our budget, get people off food stamps and into family-supporting jobs, and defund Planned Parenthood. I can't wait to work with him to take our Wisconsin values to DC."
