Brookfield, Wis. — Nurse and U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir announced the support of several influential grassroots leaders from Southeast Wisconsin who are backing her campaign. “Over the years, it’s been a pleasure to work with these strong grassroots conservatives to build the Republican Party in Wisconsin,” Leah said. “We’ve worked side by side to help lower taxes and work to get the unemployment rate to record lows. I’m excited to work with them to win in November.”

“In this U.S. Senate race, Leah is the only real conservative Republican,” said Bob Spindell, chairman of the Republican Party of Wisconsin, 4th Congressional District. “I’m proud of Leah’s great work with Gov. Walker to effectively move historic reforms through our state Legislature. Because of Leah’s proven record and her exceptionally strong Republican credentials, I have no doubt that Leah will defeat Tammy Baldwin in this very tough upcoming November election.”

Leah has a growing list of more than 200 in-state Wisconsin endorsements, including the endorsement of former White House Chief of Staff Reince Priebus, that are the foundation of her campaign. She has also been endorsed by Maggie’s List, RightNOW Women PAC and VIEW PAC. Leah Vukmir is a nurse, military mom and conservative with a proven record of reform who is running to bring the Wisconsin Way to Washington. She currently serves as a state senator from Brookfield.
