Over the weekend, RightNow Women PAC endorsed Leah Vukmir for U.S. Senate. Read more below...

Washington — RightNOW Women PAC is proud to support and endorse Leah Vukmir (U.S. Senate - WI) for the 2018 election cycle.

“I sincerely appreciate RightNOW Women’s PAC’s support as I work to unseat liberal Sen. Tammy Baldwin next year,” said U.S. Senate candidate and Wisconsin State Sen. Leah Vukmir. “Just as I have in Wisconsin, we will fight together to promote free markets and individual responsibility and limit the size and scope of government.”

Leah Vukmir is a nurse, military mom, and conservative with a proven record of reform. Today, Leah serves as the Wisconsin Senate assistant majority leader passing bold laws that make Wisconsin a better place for our children and grandchildren. Leah stood with conservatives across Wisconsin to enact some of the most sweeping, pro-job reforms ever enacted, including Governor Walker’s signature Act 10 legislation.

“Our vision to encourage and support qualified Republican women to Congress is stronger than ever,” says Jennifer Higgins, RightNOW Board Chair. As she shared recently in an interview with The Hill, Higgins believes, “We need to have more women that are Republicans that are outspoken and that people see as a different face of our party.” 2017 has been a robust year for making that happen.
