Mosinee, Wis. — U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir, a nurse and military mom, offered the following statement in response to President Trump saying at their rally in Wisconsin that we need to secure the border and stop this Caravan of illegal immigrants who are attempting to enter our country.

“We could have criminals, drug lords and terrorists from the Middle East in this caravan of attempting to enter our southern border, and I commend President Trump for his courageous leadership to keep Americans safe. Senator Baldwin has been in office since the Clinton Administration, has failed to secure our border, and is part of the angry liberal mob that has obstructed President Trump’s agenda to secure our border. As the daughter of Greek immigrants, I will work with President Trump in creating a fair and compassionate manner to solve our immigration crisis and work to keep terrorists, thugs and murders from illegally entering our country.”
