Brookfield, Wis. — Upon hearing the news Thursday that Sen. Tammy Baldwin will oppose President Trump's Supreme Court nominee, Judge Brett Kavanaugh, without even meeting with him, U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir issued the following statement:

"Sen. Baldwin's obstruction on Judge Kavanaugh's appointment is proof that she'd rather stand with her liberal activist San Francisco donors than uphold the Constitution. When Wisconsin voters elected President Trump, they knew he'd choose judges who would uphold the Constitution. Sen. Baldwin's 'no' vote will directly contradict the will of the people. Kavanaugh is an extremely well-qualified nominee who deserves our support."
