Leah Raises Nearly 80% of Funds In-State, 95% of Donors From Wisconsin

Brookfield, Wis. — U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir announced Friday that she raised nearly $600 thousand in the first quarter of the year, and has about $650 thousand cash on hand.

“Unlike my opponents who are overwhelmingly funding their campaigns with support from the DC swamp, I am proud to report that 95 percent of the donors to our campaign are Wisconsinites,” Leah said. “My team and I continue to be overwhelmed by the homegrown, grassroots response to our campaign. We are thankful for the outpouring of generosity behind our message of taking proven conservative leadership to help President Trump build the wall, defend the unborn and protect our Constitutional rights.”

Leah Vukmir is a nurse, military mom and conservative with a proven record who has stood with Gov. Walker in cutting taxes and implementing bold reforms. She is running for the U.S. Senate to bring the Wisconsin Way to Washington. She currently serves as a state senator from Brookfield.
