Brookfield, Wis. — Nurse and U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir unveiled a new list of endorsements from Wisconsin business leaders, grassroots activists and elected officials Tuesday, making her total list of public endorsers more than 400.

“Every stop I make across Wisconsin, I meet new people who are excited about replacing our do-nothing junior senator with someone who has proven she will deliver,” Leah said. “With every vote coming so close in the Senate, Wisconsinites want to send the right Republican — who we know will take the tough conservative votes — to DC.”
