Brookfield, Wis. — Nurse and U.S. Senate candidate Leah Vukmir announced the Students Choose Leah coalition Thursday, indicating broad energetic support among young voters.

“As I talk to college students across Wisconsin, they are energized about the bold reforms we’ve passed to improve our state,” Leah said. “When college students look at the crushing national debt and obligations they’ll be committed to pay back, they want a proven leader who will take the tough votes, making their future stronger.”

“Students know Leah is someone they can trust to represent the values they care about,” said Alesha Guenther, Students Choose Leah co-chair from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. “Leah is a bold, principled, conservative who has proven she cares about students and will fight for their best interests in the U.S. Senate. I’ve had the pleasure of getting to know Leah through my involvement in College Republicans, and I can truly say that she cares about Wisconsin students and their futures.”

“Since I joined College Republicans, Leah has been one of our strongest supporters,” said Ryan Ring, Students Choose Leah co-chair from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. “Her dedicated work in the Legislature has been one with Wisconsin students in mind. From supporting School Choice to the tuition freeze, she has consistently stood up for students. I am proud to stand with Leah as she runs against Tammy Baldwin because I am confident she will bring Wisconsin values to Washington.”

Inaugural members of the group include 140 college students from public and private schools across Wisconsin:
