ICYMI: Gov. Walker on Wisconsin's Bold Welfare Reforms: "We're Empowering People to Live Their Piece of the American Dream"

More than 25,000 people transition from government dependence to true independence, reforms include drug testing and stronger work requirements

[Madison, Wis.] – In case you missed it, Governor Walker joined Fox News @ Night Thursday to discuss how his bold reforms have continued to get positive things done for Wisconsin.

Gov. Walker's reforms are further proof that Wisconsin is working – increased work requirements for food stamps and drug screenings for welfare recipients are the results of the governor's bold actions that continue to move Wisconsin forward.

Excerpts from his appearance are below, and video can be found here.
