Madison — Gov. Scott Walker Saturday joined grassroots supporters from across the state to announce his campaign agenda to help Wisconsin win the 21st century – laying out his optimistic vision for Wisconsin’s future.

At the Republican Party of Wisconsin’s State Convention, Gov. Walker highlighted all the positive things Wisconsin’s bold reforms have accomplished in the state – all-time-low unemployment, more people working than ever before, historic investments in education, and more. The governor followed by stressing the importance of protecting our reforms and building on our success with his vision for how Wisconsin can be an even better place for hard-working individuals and families. Scott Walker continues to move Wisconsin forward, and with his new campaign agenda, he’s laying out an optimistic vision for how we can help Wisconsin win the 21st century.
