[Madison, Wis.] – After keeping and delivering on their promises to enact conservative reforms, Gov. Walker and Sen. Duey Stroebel have Wisconsin working – now, it's time to build on that success, share our optimistic vision for the future and keep moving Wisconsin forward.

In a joint op-ed, Gov. Walker and Sen. Stroebel discuss how Republicans' bold, conservative reforms have cleaned up the mess left by years of Democrat control of state government and have achieved real, positive results for hard-working families across Wisconsin. Under their leadership, we've set all-time lows for unemployment, made historic investments in education, returned over $8 billion to the hard-working taxpayers and worked to stabilize Wisconsin's health care. Gov. Walker and conservative reformers are moving the state forward.
