Calhoun Road to 124th Street in the City of Brookfield and Village of Elm Grove

(WAUKESHA, WI) - The Waukesha County Department of Public Works will host a public hearing for the North Avenue reconstruction study on Wednesday, January 9, at the Brookfield Central High School (16900 Gebhardt Road, Brookfield, WI) cafeteria. The open-house format hearing will go from 4:30 pm to 6:00 pm. Formal public testimony will begin at 6:00 p.m.

Representatives from Waukesha County and the consultant team will be available to discuss the project and answer questions. Exhibits will be on display for viewing. An Environmental Assessment documenting the project, alternatives, and impacts can be found at the Brookfield and Elm Grove libraries or online at northavenureconstruction.org.

Verbal testimony may be privately given to a court reporter at any time during the hearing from 4:30 to 8 p.m. Written comments may be provided at the hearing or after the hearing as long as they are received or postmarked by January 23, 2019.
