Here is a statement from Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation Secretary and CEO Mark R. Hogan regarding Kimberly-Clark.

Secretary Hogan statement:

“WEDC is pleased Kimberly-Clark has reached an agreement with the United Steelworkers that would ensure the company’s Cold Spring facility remains in operation. WEDC has had productive conversations with the company since February regarding how the legislation to provide Kimberly-Clark with state incentives would work with WEDC’s programs. We look forward to working with the company, Governor Walker and state legislators to find a path forward to secure Kimberly-Clark’s presence in Wisconsin for decades to come.”
