Menomonee Falls, Wis., March 22, 2018 – Wil-Kil Pest Control, a leader in pest management services in the upper Midwest and a Copesan Pest Solutions partner, today announced the company was recognized as Copesan’s 2017 Quality Partner of the Year in the large category. This is the third consecutive year Wil-Kil Pest Control has been honored with this award.

“We are thrilled to be named Copesan’s 2017 Quality Partner of the Year in the large category for three years in a row,” said J. Kevin Jeffrey, General Manager of Wil-Kil Pest Control. “We are proud of our technicians who have a deep commitment to the industry and provide the highest quality pest management service to their customers every day.”

Copesan’s Quality Partner of the Year is awarded to the Copesan Partner with the highest level of consistent quality in its division, including service delivery, net promoter score (NPS), audits and action plan follow-through and adherence to specific client protocols. As a winner of the 2017 Copesan’s Quality Partner of the Year in their category of similarly sized companies, Wil-Kil Pest Control was recognized at Copesan’s annual awards banquet held on February 13, 2018, in Las Vegas, NV.

Wil-Kil Pest Control is part of the Copesan network, an alliance of premier pest management companies united to provide quality pest solutions to commercial, national businesses throughout North America.
