The Wisconsin chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) endorses Ann Groves Lloyd in the special election for Wisconsin's 42 state Assembly seat.

Ann Groves Lloyd's service on the Lodi Common Council has shown her dedication to uplifting her community.

"Her platform will increase affordable healthcare access, education and economic security for women and families," said Lindsay Lemmer, president of the Wisconsin chapter of the National Organization for Women. "She will champion paid family leave, which is critical as no one should have to choose between attending to a family health emergency and having a paycheck. She understands her community and is an example of the kind of leadership we need in the state Assembly."
