Madison, Wis. – The Wisconsin Supreme Court is seeking interested volunteers to serve on boards and committees that assist the court system in a variety of areas.

The court system relies on volunteers, both lawyers and non-lawyers, because of their diverse expertise and background, to perform this essential service.

For more information, or to submit a resume to the Clerk of Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, visit the court system's volunteer participation website. Positions are filled on an as-needed basis, and resumes will be kept on file for future consideration.

The Supreme Court receives recommendations from the Supreme Court Appointment Selection Committee, and makes appointments to the following boards and committees (hyperlinks provided):

Board of Bar Examiners

Board of Administrative Oversight

District Investigative Committees

Preliminary Review Committee

State Bar Board of Governors

Wisconsin Judicial Commission

The Wisconsin Supreme Court also appoints volunteers to serve on the Wisconsin Access to Justice Commission. For more information about any of these volunteer opportunities, contact Anna Yarish (608) 266-1298 or anna.yarish@wicourts.gov.
