Wisconsin Veterans Business Conference to feature Bunker Labs Founder, Patriot Boot Camp CEO, and MSI General Corporation Chairman & CEO

MILWAUKEE, Wis. – The Wisconsin Veterans Chamber of Commerce announced today it will host the second annual Wisconsin Veterans Business Conference on Thursday, May 24 at Potawatomi Hotel & Casino. The Wisconsin Veterans Business Conference is the state's premiere gathering of Wisconsin's veteran business community. Speakers will include Bunker Labs Founder and CEO Todd Connor, Patriot Boot Camp interim-CEO Josh Carter, and Vice Admiral Dirk Debbink (retired), Chairman & CEO of MSI General Corporation.

“Military veterans are critical to our state’s business community. The selfless service, dedication, and determination instilled in military service members makes them leaders in business and our communities. Veterans are fueling Wisconsin’s economy,” said Saul Newton, Executive Director of the Wisconsin Veterans Chamber of Commerce. “We are proud to bring veteran business owners, veterans friendly businesses, and corporate leaders together to recognize the contributions veterans make to Wisconsin’s economy and our communities.”

The Wisconsin Veterans Business Conference combines a business expo featuring more than 100 veteran owned and veteran friendly businesses from across Wisconsin; workshops featuring experts and leaders in entrepreneurship, business development, and employment; and an awards luncheon. The event runs from 9am-3pm.

The Wisconsin Veterans Business Conference is open to the public. Registration is $75 per person. More information is available at wiveteranschamber.org/conference
