MADISON — The follow is a response from Democratic Party of Wisconsin chair Martha Laning on results from today's Marquette University Law School poll.

“Since January, Wisconsin Democrats have faced off against outside spending and won three major races, and it was the power of our people that helped us across the finish line. Wisconsin Democrats are energized like never before, and ready to do the hard work that needs to get done to send Tony Evers to the governor's office, re-elect our Senator Tammy Baldwin, and elect Democrats up and down the ballot who share our values.”
