MADISON — The following is a response from Democratic Party of Wisconsin chair Martha Laning on news that Andy Gronik has ended his campaign for governor.

“Thank you Andy for running a good race and for always believing in a better future for Wisconsin. The race for governor has always been about beating Scott Walker, and we’re thrilled that Andy and his supporters will be there beside us as we continue that fight. Democrats remain focused on the future of better schools, fixing our roads, and providing clean and ethical government, and I’m proud to have Andy continue that drive in a different way.”
