More than doubling the number of field offices in operation

[Madison, WI] — Wisconsin Republicans have increased their ground-game investment by more than doubling the number of staffed field offices around Wisconsin. Joined by Governor Scott Walker, the Republican Party of Wisconsin opened new offices statewide and continued building and engaging our army of grassroots volunteers. Today, RPW is announcing the launch of a new digital advertisement, entitled “Grassroots,” aimed at recruiting more volunteers in every corner of the state.
